

Command & Colors: Ancients

ACRILLAE - 213 BC

Historical Background

Hippocrates, with an army of 10000 foot and 500 horse, slipped through a Roman blockade and took the road to Agrigentum. He was unaware that Marcellus and his legion were arriving via the same road. Marcellus deployed quickly and attacked. Hippocrates and his army offered some resistance, but were eventually routed and only the cavalry was able to flee.

War Council

Roman Army

Leader: Marcellus

- Take 4 Command cards.
- Move first.

Greek Army

Leader: Hippocrates

- Take 3 Command cards.

Victory

1. 5 Banners

Special Rules

1. Syracuse army uses Greek (blue) blocks.
2. Treat all cards specifically for left or right as "Any Section".

Designed by: Greg Blanchett (Gregster@dfwfront.com)