

NUMISTRO - 210 BC

Historical Background

After the Roman disaster at Herdonia, Marcellus immediately broke camp and advanced against Hannibal, confronting him near Numistro in Lucania. Hannibal accepted the challenge and a fierce day-long battle ensued. The engagement ended in a draw, but Hannibal was first to march off the field, with Marcellus in hot pursuit.

War Council

Roman Army

Leader: Marcellus

- Take 5 Command cards.
- Move first.

Carthaginian Army

Leader: Hannibal

- Take 4 Command cards.

Victory

1. 6 Banners

Special Rules

None.